

Bloomington's Event

Skokie, IL – January 21, 2010

Anita Brown Culinary Coach “walked down the aisle” with the brides at Bloomington’s Bridal Registry Event earlier this month. Anita explained to brides, grooms and mothers how culinary coaching can be a unique and needed gift before and happily ever after the big day. Learning how to use all those wedding gifts while preparing quick, tasty, healthy dishes were lively topics of discussion for the evening. Anita Brown Culinary Coach looks forward to becoming a must have on the bride’s list of gifts!
